

Do a little bit of everything during your week!

COVID restrictions may impact this itinerary, especially for tourists that are not fully vaccinated.

Arrival day

Junior (or his driver, Billy) greets you at the airport and gets you settled in his comfortable vehicle. If you want some supplies, stop at Uptowns Liquor for the best selection of “adult” beverages and at the grocery in La Tourney for a larger selection of items than the local groceries. Then settle in and enjoy the ride to the villa. You'll be especially glad you aren't driving when you get to the last 10 minutes and the infamous Anse Chastanet Road!

Savor Doxie's rum punch while she shows you around the villa, then feel yourself relax while you watch the sun set over the Caribbean and enjoy her roti for dinner.

First day

Sleep in, have Doxie make you brunch, then walk up the road to the top for a panoramic view of Soufriere and the Pitons. Pack up the beach gear and a cooler of Piton beers, and head to Anse Chastanet beach. Soak up the sun, do some snorkeling, and cool off with a cold beer.

Junior picks you up from the beach around 5 pm and takes you back to the villa. Dinner is waiting for you, since you arranged with Doxie when you arrived to have her make you dinner this evening.

Second day

Junior picks you up in the morning and takes you to the Soufriere dock where you take a catamaran for a whale and dolphin-watching tour with Mystic Man or a half-day sail with Sugar Boat Charters. When he picks you up, stop at the grocery to replenish your supply of drinks and snacks.

When you get back to the villa, eat Doxie's roti for lunch and relax by the pool, then head to Dasheene late afternoon to have a beverage and appetizers while watching the sun set between the Pitons. Stay at Dasheene for dinner and arrive back at the villa after dark for a nightcap and to watch for shooting stars.

Third day

Have Junior pick you up about 8:30 AM and head to the north of the island. Visit the craft market in Castries or do a little duty-free shopping in Pointe Seraphine then have lunch at the Pink Plantation overlooking Castries.

After lunch, hop on a Segway for a tour of the hills overlooking Rodney Bay, or stroll among the ruins on Pigeon Island and scramble to the top of Signal Hill to get a glimpse of Martinique. Have dinner at Spice of India in Rodney Bay (literally our favorite Indian restaurant in the world) or Amici if you prefer Italian food, then leave the driving to Junior and get back late to the villa.

(For those of you who get a little carsick or want a chance to see more of the island by boat, you can take a boat from the Soufriere dock up to Rodney Bay and get a taxi there. We recommend Sugar Boat Charters.)

Fourth day

Sleep in a little then have a light breakfast. Pack up the cooler with cold Piton beers and leftovers or sandwiches (or Doxie's roti), grab the snorkel gear, the beach umbrella and chairs, and have Junior take you to Anse Chastanet.

Stop at the Scuba St Lucia hut on the Anse Chastanet beach and arrange a tour through the Anse Mamin ruins. Walk to Anse Mamin beach (about 5 minutes), then hike or bike through the trails and ruins. Prefer a water activity? Snorkel at Anse Mamin, swim, or just relax and soak up the sun. If you didn't pack lunch, have a burger at the Jungle Grill on Anse Mamin.

Back to the villa in late afternoon to clean up and relax by the pool, and then have some rum punch before dining on the fresh fish dinner Doxie has cooked for you.

Fifth day

Pack up the snorkel gear and your camera, and head out around 9 AM for the Tet Paul Nature Trail. Next stop is a trip to the drive-in volcano and the mud baths and a waterfall.

Stop at Fedo's for authentic St Lucian cooking for lunch, then take a water taxi to Sugar Beach (price not included in Zone 1 price) for beautiful white sand and snorkeling between the Pitons.

Back to the villa late afternoon, clean up, and then off to Rabot restaurant for dinner and a sumptuous chocolate lava cake for dessert, made with local cocoa, and sip on-site-produced chocolate cream liqueur, if you are lucky.

Sixth day

Go to Morne Coubaril for zip-lining, a plantation tour, and a lesson in how chocolate is made. Eat lunch at their buffet, Martha's Tables, or at The Mango Tree restaurant at Stonefield.

Get on the Mystic Man sunset cruise (catamaran from Soufriere dock, sailing around the Pitons with music, beverages, and hors d'oeuvres while enjoying the sunset), then head back to the villa and enjoy your last night with one last delicious dinner made by Doxie (or leftovers!).

Last day

Get up early. Savor some freshly-brewed local coffee, and watch the sailboats head to St Vincent over the deep blue Caribbean. Soak up the peacefulness one last time.

Take a few sunrise pictures, and maybe even catch a double rainbow during a brief early morning shower. Pack, sadly say goodbye to Doxie and all the rest of our wonderful staff and head off to the airport. Start planning your trip back while you are having one last Piton beer at the airport.
